ORGANISING SECRETARY
5TH INTERNATIONAL YOUTH SYMPOSIUM

Greetings from the Organizing Secretary,

B.K. School of Professional and Management Studies, Gujarat University has embarked on a journey, successfully organizing Youth Summits for the last 5 years with a vision to facilitate knowledge sharing between various spectrums of society. This Summit sets the stage for dialogue and discussions on the challenges and opportunities, ideas and experiences, that the youth of today can learn from and be empowered to take initiatives and find solutions.

The 5th InterNational Youth Symposium is on the theme Youth Leadership for Global Development: Sustainable Initiatives and Roadmap. This Summit organized by B. K. School of Professional and Management Studies, Gujarat University commits to bringing together Academicians, Industry Executives, Leaders and Entrepreneurs, Research Scholars and Students for fruitful exchange of dialogues and harnessing the combined spectrum of knowledge to gain valuable insights about the present scenario and be future-ready for the challenges on the journey forward.

The institute has also taken initiatives to collaborate with other institutions, industries and other stakeholders for exchange of ideas and experience towards realization of the set vision for sustainable global development.

In the changing times, the role of youth is increasing as more and more young minds are taking up the reigns of various organizations and institutions augmenting to sustainable development in all sectors. Therefore, it is indeed appropriate to organize a symposium on this theme to guide the youth in their endeavours. The richness and depth of the theme and sub-themes presents a huge opportunity for understanding the fact that the global change should be brought about with sustainability to ensure a blooming future.

I am sure the deliberations and action plan developed during the symposium would contribute towards the policy framework for sustainable global development.

I sincerely wish the 5th InterNational Youth Symposium a grand success.
